Ed= Skolnick is, as everyone knows, not a publicity seeker. If he were, he's missed a great line: "I went to Canada as a graft evader". I'm glad the crazy crooked bastard is safe. Or, more precisely, not harmed by others. He could have something on the pipeline business. He sure advertized for it! If anything should ever happen to him, almost nobody in Chicago will believe it could have been accidental. Were it not that everyone fears him, I suspect the cops might lay a few charges on, esp. vs. Cole. This seems to have gotten no press attention outside the city that is used tos so much wind anyway. Thanks, HW 3/31/73

Please laugh + publish